Social update

- Ball information
- Menu still to be finalised
- Buses also still to be organised
- Discussions being had with the photographer, still to finalise price

- Ceilidh
- 50 tickets still up for grabs! Please spread the word
- Band, photographer, food all sorted
- Email sent to Sarah Hendry to spread the word to staff members
- Was a major success last year, let's make it just as great!
- Send out email to members, get in touch with other societies as well, everyone is welcome 😊
- Lots of good raffle prizes, including Braes voucher, TCLA subscriptions etc.

Fundraising update

- Clothing drive
- Ready to be uploaded on the website
- Found an array of suppliers
- Fleeces going on sale for £32.50
- Hoodies for £29.50
- Joggers £27.50
- Costs are based on the price of goods from the suppliers, slightly smaller profit than last year
- Hoodies and joggers can be personalised!

Career's update

- Addleshaw Goddard Event happening this evening! Nibbles and sharing platters being provided for all
- AG event will be final event of this semester!

Plans for next semester

- End of semester poll to go forward to gauge what kind of events people are looking for
- Event to happen with two of our sponsors DLA Piper & Ashurst
- As well as a more commercial awareness centred event next semester specifically with TCLA
- University of Law also keen to get involved in an event
- To further enquire with Dundee Sheriff Court as they also sparked an interest in coming along to talk to our members
- Looking to also have a criminal law-based event, following the success of the criminal advocacy workshop last year
- Lots to look forward to!

Introduction of new social media convenor

- Massive congratulations and welcome to Catherine!
- Committee members to correspond in the group chat regarding any Instagram posts we feel raise important issues and aim to get them shared on the DULS story.
- Any social media posts that are needed to advertise DULS events to be discussed in the agenda every week moving forward

External Trips

- Varsity Recap
- Ran very well!
- Massive thanks to all Dundee students who came along and to those who hosted 😊
- Glasgow to host next year

- Parliament trip
- Social media posts ready to go including sign-up link, please only sign-up if you can make it!
- 17 spaces up for grabs
- Everyone to make their own way there, to be at Parliament for 14:10pm to give everyone plenty time to get through security
- Social media post will provide information regarding recommended bus times
- Christmas markets trip to follow! Very festive

Study groups

- 25 sign ups so far!
- Whatsapp groups to be made
- To be revisited in January, advertise well

Welfare

- Promised well-being Wednesdays
- To be introduced for next semester
- Might change day just so we do not clash with sports
- Aim to have twice a month, for better turnout
- Evening session, encompass an activity such as group games! Just dance!

- Mental health support
- Welfare feedback form being made, encompassing questions regarding how DULS can support members better

- Confirmation with Murray Etherington for a talk on welfare on the 16th of January to kick off our welfare week!
- Agenda for welfare week still in the works

Diversity Update

- Discussions still to be had regarding ticket prices for DULS Diversity Gala next semester on the 18th of March
- Aim of the event is for everyone to have the chance to express their own cultures, currently reaching out to different societies who would be keen to get and involved and perform!
- Catered event with food, music and fun! 😊
- More information to follow soon once more details have been finalised
